Hand-drawn diagram showing a table with columns A, C, B, and E. The table is enclosed in a red rectangle, which is itself inside a larger blue oval. There are additional blue scribbles to the left of the oval.

Handwritten diagram of a 16-bit register. The register is represented as a horizontal row of 16 boxes, each containing a bit value. Above the register, green 'x' marks are placed above bits 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 11, 12, 14, and 15. Red arrows point from the top to bits 7, 10, and 11. Bit 10 is circled in red.
